WINTER 2023

"Once a year go someplace you've never been before."

-Dalai Lama

'tis the season
TO BE JOLLY

From your Club Director

Although winter months may be long and cold, there is something about this time of year that is warm and magical. Family and friends coming together to celebrate holidays and people seem to express more gratitude and love. Gratitude doesn't need to be reserved only for holidays. We can find gratitude in everything, even the cold winters. My favorite winter memory is watching my children's eyes light up when it begins to snow. They could spend hours building snowmen, making snow angels, and sledding, as if the cold did not seem to affect them at all. I once read a quote, "Your little moments today will become tomorrow's precious memories". As we begin the new year, take time this season to connect with loved ones. Invite friends over for a game night, soup swap, or pizza night. Send care packages to friends and family that live far away. Always remember to be thankful, be kind, be honest, show grace and allow this winter season to be magical for you.

Dear Cindy -

For my first extended bus tour, I could not have chosen a better tour guide & hostess. You did an excellent job. Thank you so very much.

The snacks & availability of water was great. The use of monopoly money was fun & the auction was great. Some gals made some lovely things.
